

Stone Court Farm's Pastured "Freedom Ranger" Chickens

2013 Order Form

This year, we will be raising three batches of "Freedom Ranger" broiler chickens on pasture. Last year, we raised two batches for our own use, and we have never, ever tasted better chicken. We expect to be processing the 2013 chickens in approximately mid-July, late August, and mid-October. We will have these chickens processed at Central Illinois Poultry Processing, which is a USDA-approved facility. When the dates get closer, we will let you know exactly when your chickens will be ready.

In order to reserve chickens in any (or all) of these batches, we require a $1.50 deposit per chicken, which will be subtracted from the per-pound charge at the end. Chickens cost $3.75/lb, and we will aim for raising the birds to a 4.5 lb. dressed weight.
